Finito Alexandro Magno Stampato in Venetia per Giovan Antonio et Fratelli da Sabio ad instantia di M. Damiano de Santa Maria nel - MDXXIX.

The date is followed by two pages of Greek verses by Demetrius Zenus. This is a volume of the greatest scarcity. Warton observes that "it was a common practice of the learned and indigent Greeks who frequented Italy and the neighbouring states about the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, to translate the most popular pieces of Italian poetry, and the romances or tales most in vogue, into these Greco-barbarous iambics. Pastor Fido was thus translated. The Romance of Alexander the Great was also translated in the same manner by Demetrius Zenus, who flourished in 1530, under the title of Αλεξανδρος ο Μακεδων and printed at Venice in the year 1529."

This account is quoted by Warton from Crusii Turco-Græcia. All the copies were most probably sent to the possessions of the Venetians in the Morea which may account for its very great rarity as no copy appears to have occurred for sale here or in France for many years.

 This is the celebrated Edition of the Polish Bible published by the Socinians from the Vulgate, at the expense of Prince Nicolas Radzivil, and printed at Brescz in Lithuania, and is one of the rarest books ever printed. For full particulars respectingits publication see Bib. Spencer. vol. I. p. 85, and Cotton's Typographical Gazetteer, p. 40. This copy is in very fine preservation, but wants an Alphabetical Table of Names at the end consisting of seven leaves. 21. — . — 1026 BOCCACCIO (GIOVANNI). Incomincia il libro primo di Florio et di Bianzefiore chiamato philocolo che tanto e adire quanto amorosa faticha. Composto per il clarissimo poeta Messer Johanne Boccacio da certaldo ad instancia di la illustre e generosa madonna Maria figluola naturale del inclito Re Roberto, fine copy with wood-cuts, from Cardinal Imperiali's Library,
Impressa in la excellentissima Citta di Napol. Regina della Italia, per Mastro Sixto Russinger, MCCCCLXXVIII.
 This edition of the Philocolo of Boccaccio is extraordinarily rare. The attention of Bibliographers appears to have been first directed to it by Laire in his Catalogue of Cardinal Lomenie's Library. "Tantæ Raritatis est Editio hæc, ut apud Bibliographos ne minima quidem hujus fiat mentio." Panzer and Brunet only refer to Laire's description. Notwithstanding nearly forty years are past since the period of Laire's notice, the Continental sales do not appear to have furnished a second copy; and a long time may elapse before another opportunity occurs to the Collector of securing this Edition of the Philocolo, one of the rarest productions of the Neapolitan press in the fifteenth century. A copy is in Lord Spencer's Library, and in that of Count Boutourlin of Florence. The present is quite complete, and contains 239 leaves. Payne

Venetia, Vindelinus de Spira, MCCCCLXXVII. Thorpe.

 This is the first Edition of Dante published with a Commentary. Benvenuto da Imola lived about 1380. Among many other curious particulars it contains the following relative to Mahomet. "This Sinner was Mahomet, who became a Schismatic from the Holy Church in this manner. The aforesaid being a Cardinal of Rome both wise and one who had written much in the service of the Christian Faith, went to preach it in Africa, and was so full of grace that he brought over to Christianity almost all those parts. Now when he went there it was promised him by the Cardinals, if before thou comest, God does aught to our Sovereign the Pope, we will elect thee. Before he returned the Pope died, and the Cardinals chose another: when this man knew it he was angered, and began to preach all the contrary to that people. At last he seduced them to the pestiferous faith of the Saracens, which is death to the souls of those who believe in it. The Pope hearing of this change sent for him, but he would never come, and was excommunicated as a Schismatic and Rebel from the Holy Church."

The author of this valuable and interesting Chronicle is unknown. He speaks of the Relics preserved in Monasterio Loricensis Ordinis Sancti Benedicti, quas oculis nostris perspeximus. The History commences in 1138, and concludes in 1229. It contains many anecdotes relative to the state of Europe during that period, the conquests of the two Fredericks Barbarossa in Italy, and their Expeditions to the Holy Land. The following notice occurs of Richard I. Fuit autem Richardus Rex Angliæ homo ferocissimus, favorabilis, gloriæ cupidus, pecuniæ liberalis, quocunque ipsum trahebat sequens impetus, et quem ipsi Sarraceni et populus Christianus et alii timuerunt. In the year 1187, it is stated, Eo anno Fridericus imperator jam cruce signatus conventum Principum apud Nuremberg coadunavit ubi de pace terræ disposuit et in litteras redigi jussit, quas litteras Alamanni usque in præsens fridebrief id est litteras pacis vocant nec aliis legibus utuntur. Sed nec eisdem recte utuntur tamquam gens agrestis et indomita. Quarum tenorem huic operi duximus inserendum quotenus saltem lex tam decurtata non pereat de hominum memoria.

SALLUST. Here begynneth the famous cronycle of the warre, which the romayns had agaynst Jugurth, translated into englyshe by Syr Alexander Bercley preest, London, Rycharde Pynson, no date, 3 volumes in one, russia. A very curious volume.

 The Travels of Hayton into the Holy Land and Armenia, and his History of Asia, is one of the most valuable of the early Accounts of the East. A French Translation was published at Paris in 1529, in the curious work of Longdit Histoire Merveilleuse du Grand Empereur de Tartarie. The present is the only translation into English, and from the circumstance of its being printed by Pynson and bound with two other works, both translated by Barclay, was probably also made by him. It is a book of extraordinary rarity, no perfect copy that can be traced having occurred for public sale.

15. 15. - 3709 JAMES I. BASILICON DORON, DEVIDED INTO THREE BOOKES, first edition, excessively rare, if not unique,
Edinburgh printed by Robert Waldegrave, Printer to the Kings Majestie, 1599 Thorpe

This is the first Edition of the work which has been supposed to contribute more than any other to smooth James's accession to the Crown. Its rarity and literary value will be appreciated by the following extracts from M'Crie's Life of Melville. "Fond of seeing this work in print, and yet conscious that it would give great offence, James was anxious to keep it from the knowledge of his native subjects until circumstances should enable him to publish it with safety. "With this view the printer being first sworn to secrecy," says he, "I only permitted SEVEN of them to be printed and these SEVEN I dispersed among some of my trustiests servants to be kept close by them." I have now before me a copy of the first edition (the present) and I have no doubt that it is one of the seven copies, (perhaps the only one now existing) to which that edition was limited. It is beautifully printed in a large Italic letter. Prefixed to it are two sonnets, the first of which entitled "The Dedication of the booke" is not to be found in the subsequent editions. On comparing this with the subsequent ones, I find that alterations were made in the work. For though all the charges against the Scottish preachers are retained, James found it necessary to drop or to soften some of his most unguarded and harsh expressions, and to give an ambiguous turn to the sentences which had created the greatest offence. For example in the original edition he says "If my conscience had not resolved me, that all my religion was grounded upon the plaine words of the scripture, I had never outwardly avowed it, for pleasure or awe of the vaine pride of some sedicious Preachours.' In the edition of 1603, that sentence stands thus, "I had never outwardlie avowed it, for pleasure or awe of any flesh." Several other alterations of the Text are quoted and the following among other sentences is omitted, speaking of the Islanders of Scotland, "Thinke no other of them all, then as Wolves and Wild Boares."

22.10.- 3785 JAMES THE FIRST. THE ARCHS OF TRIUMPH, erected in honor of the High and Mighty Prince James the First of that name King of England, and the Sixt of Scotland, 37.0.6 at his Maiesties Entrance and Passage through his Honorable Citty and Chamber of London, upon the 15th day of March, 1603, invented and published by Harrison, and graven by Kip, PLATES AND DUPLICATE SERIES WITH VARIATIONS, EXCESSIVELY RARE,

Imprinted at London by John Windet, Printer to the Honourable Citie of London, 1604 Thorpe.

 "This is a Book of extraordinary rarity, and one of the most curious relating to James the First. It is equally interesting to the Book and Print Collector. The Designs of the Triumphal Arches were by Harrison, the engravings by Kip, and the text written by Ben Jonson and Dekker. Walpole in his Anecdotes of Painting, says he never saw but one copy, which was in the library of the Duke of Devonshire, at Chatsworth. The indefatigable researches of Gough, discovered a copy in the Pepysian Library, and a third in the library of the Society of Antiquaries. The library of the Corporation of London, possesses an imperfect copy. The Duke of Buckingham has the plates without any portion of the text.

"Nearly twelve months," says Wilson in his Life of James I. "elapsed from the period of Elizabeth's death to his public entry from the Tower." James had lingered on his journey, "banqueting and feasting." This afforded the Citizens of London ample time to make splendid preparations for the reception of the King. They laboured without intermission. "The City and Suburbs were one Great Pageant."

"We have heard," says Mr. Gifford, "much of the expenses incurred by the temporary erections for the celebration of the late peace; but they shrink to nothing before the cost of the entertainments prepared for the reception of James."

This curious Copy was formerly in the Library of Mr. Woodhouse; but its present state may be considered unique, as Mr. Dent has added a duplicate series of the plates containing variations. It is confidently believed that no Collector has these plates in both states."

This very interesting account is extracted from Mr. Evans's notice of this copy in the Sale Catalogue of Dent's Library.

Beneath is a large wood cut occupying the whole page, the reverse contains the privileges of Clement VII. and the Venetian Senate, followed by a leaf on the recto of which is an address Lucretia M. B. a gli Lettori, on the reverse a sonnet of the Author to Madonna Lucrecia. The Poem begins on page 3: thus, L'Antheo Gigante di Francesco de Lodovici de Venecia novamente per lui composto ad instanza della magnifica Madonna Lucrecia et cetera Signora sua. The Poem ends on the recto of folio 162, with the following colophon: Fine dello Antheo gigante di Francesco de Lodovici cittadino Vinitiano per lui cōposto l'anno del nostro signore MDXXIII. et stampato in Venegia per Francesco Bindoni, et Mapheo Pasini compagni, nel'anno 1524. Adi 9 del mese di Luglio. Ad instanza della Magnifica Madonna Lucretia M. B. followed by the register. This is one of the very rarest of the Italian Romance Poems. It contains 30 cantos in octava Rima, and recounts the first adventures of Charlemagne against the Giant Antæus. It is not found in the most extensive Catalogues in this country or abroad. Fine copy in blue morocco. Thorpe

1.4.— Apud filios Gio. Francisci Turresani Venetiis Mense Martio, MDLXI.

This is a work of very great value in an Aldine Series. It is printed in red and black characters, in 2 volumes, and the date is in the second volume, with the printer's device on the reverse followed by 31 leaves. It has not been correctly described by any Bibliographer, and is, without doubt, the work alluded to in the following description by Renouard, Annales des Alde, vol. 2, p. 13.

"Liber Precum. Venetiis apud Filios Gio. Francisci Turresani, 1561."

"Ce livre mal annoncé dans la Serie, edition de 1803 l'est beaucoup plus exactement dans Bibliotheca Duboisiana No. 5504, on y lit, "Liber (forte Breviarium aut Missale Mozarabum) litteralis rubronigris eleganter impressum, Venet. &c. En tete du volume etoit cette note manuscrite." "Langue mozarabe ou muzarabe, dont il y a une eglise a Toledo en Espagne, &c." Ce volume nous fait connoitre que Francois d'Asola ou Turrisan se nommoit aussi Jean, et c'est je crois le seul document qui donne cette connoissance."

It was very unlikely that a work on the Mozarabic Service, only used in one church in Spain, should have been printed at the Aldine Press; whereas this Service Book was printed for the use of the Churches of Dalmatia and Sclavonia, and all the copies were probably sent thither, which will account for its excessive rarity.

" Le second volume est tellement rare que l'existence en a été ignorée de presque tous les Bibliographes, et que l'on en connait a peine cinq ou six exemplaires. Il passe pour certain que l'edition entiere fut séquestrée dès qu'elle eut été terminée. En 1695 elle se trouvait dans le Magasin d'un libraire a Bruxelles, ou elle fut entierement brulé lors du bombardement de cette ville par les Français. Il n'a donc pu se conserver que les exemplaires que l'auteur avait distribués." Brunet. This is the copy mentioned by Brunet as being in the possession of Messrs. Longman.
